Caring – we provide a safe and welcoming environment for all.

Respectful – we treat all people fairly and equally.

Inclusive – we are welcoming and put people first.

Adaptable – we respond to individual and community needs in a creative and flexible way.

Accountable – we take responsibility for our decisions and follow through on our commitments.

Djerriwarrh is committed to quality, innovation and promoting a culture of continuous improvement in its governance, management and service delivery.

Djerriwarrh is committed to child safety and all staff, volunteers and board members have a responsibility to prevent child abuse and respond appropriately to allegations.

All Djerriwarrh employees have a shared responsibility to identify and manage risks particularly those associated with children and young people attending the workplace.

Djerriwarrh is committed to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all children and young people from all cultures including from Aboriginal peoples, people from culturally and/or linguistically diverse backgrounds, gender and sexually diverse people and people with a disability.

POSITION OBJECTIVES:

Parent Pathways is a completely voluntary program that aims to provide support services to meet parents where they're at, both in location and their stage of life, whether that's helping parents identify their strengths, develop a new skill, plan for future work or study or access financial support or a referral to community support services to address difficulties they may be experiencing. Parent Pathways recognises the connection of parents to pre-employment opportunities and that there may be many pathways for a parent before they are ready to think about and plan for study or employment. The objectives of Parent Pathways are to assist parents with young children to identify their strengths, connect with local services, and pursue their educational and employment goals when they are ready to do so. The new program aims to provide quality support that is meaningful, flexible, and individualised to each parents' unique circumstances and caring responsibilities.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

Parent Mentors are responsible for the day-to-day delivery of support services to all parent clients and participants at Djerriwarrh. This includes maintaining a caseload, directly supporting participants, and ensuring the effective delivery of the program in line with the Deed, Guidelines, participant needs, and Djerriwarrh's organisational goals.

Program Expertise and Delivery:

- Demonstrated experience and success delivering a voluntary program or service, including delivering outreach services.
- Demonstrated track record of case management, preferably working with parents and people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds.
- Experience in providing education and employment support services.
- Supporting parents in job search activities and/or workshops to build employability skills.
- Experience working with employers and helping them with their recruitment needs.
- Providing vocational guidance tailored to the participants goals and connecting them to suitable VET/education providers.
- Deliver and facilitate activities, workshops and/or training to participants, such as 'Life Skills', Skills for Parents, digital literacy, and financial literacy.
- Experience in community and stakeholder engagement, including being involved in Communities of Practice, Consumer Advisory Groups, and peak/industry bodies.

- Sound understanding and application of IT systems, including government programs, such as ESS web, and administering the Job Seeker Classification Instrument (JSCI).
- Providing timely and accurate information/data to the Program Manager via IT systems and internal reports.

CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT:

The Parent Mentor is a full time/part time position.

Remuneration falls under the Labour Market Assistance Industry Award. Salary is within the range of $62,950.03 to $76,720.97 pro rata plus superannuation. This position may access “tax free” benefits of $30,000 grossed-up per annum. Djerriwarrh receives concessional fringe benefit tax treatment due to its current Public Benevolent Institution (PBI) status, and can therefore pass on these benefits to staff according to current tax legislation. This benefit is only available to staff while Djerriwarrh retains the PBI status.

The starting salary is dependent on relevant qualifications and experience. A probation period of 6 months applies to this position.

Confirmation of employment

Confirmation of employment with Djerriwarrh is subject to the provision of:

- Satisfactory outcome of Nationally Coordinated Criminal History Check (NCCHC) and Working with Children Check. A Working with Children Check is the responsibility of the employee.
- A valid Australian visa with work rights (if applicable).

Workplace Health and Safety (WHS)

All employees have a personal responsibility to work safely and to abide by the legislation, rules and established safe work practices that govern safety.

All employees are responsible for their own safety and that of fellow employees. All employees must:

- Report unsafe or unhealthy work practices to WHS representatives, coordinators and/or managers.
- Comply with WHS policies and procedures (including updated COVID-19 Safe practices and plans) and to follow directions given by coordinators, managers or any WHS and Emergency Response Team representatives in relation to safe work practices.
- Comply with all current government and health expert advice, including Chief Health Officer Directions, regarding COVID-19 safe practices and requirements.

Site flexibility

Staff may be required to work at any of the Djerriwarrh sites including outreach sites. Djerriwarrh’s head office is based in Melton with other sites in Sunshine and Ballarat.

Drivers licence

A current driver’s licence is required.

Pre-existing injury

The person appointed to this position will be required to disclose any pre-existing injuries or disease that might be adversely affected by employment in this position. This will assist Djerriwarrh in providing a safe work environment for new staff.
